

9" Magnetic Torpedo Level

Get the plumb, level and 45-degree readings you need easily with the Empire® Level 9-Inch Magnetic Torpedo Level. It features a magnetic edge that lets you attach it to metal surfaces like pipes for hands-free use. The Empire Level 9-inch magnetic torpedo level has a lightweight aluminum frame that helps ensure the tool's durability and a lengthy lifespan. Its small size makes it ideal for gathering readings in compact spaces where longer levels might not fit. For easier visibility and more accurate readings from above, the Empire Level compact torpedo level has a top view window. Its small size means it fits easily into most tool boxes, tool pouches or even your pockets. When not in use, it has a built-in hang hole for convenient storage.
